

OREGON

Overview
Oregon has no requirements for the provision of adult day services. The state has operational standards, which providers may comply with on a voluntary basis. These standards are summarized in this profile. Providers are required to register their programs on a registry administered by the Department of Human Services, Seniors and People with Disabilities Division. All adult day services programs shall register with the Division. The form for registration shall include, but not be limited to: (1) the name and address of the program and (2) a checklist to determine the extent each program is voluntarily complying with the standards set forth in these rules. Licensed long-term care facilities providing adult day services programs are not required to register.

Definitions
Adult day services means a community-based group program designed to meet the needs of adults with impairments through individual plans of care. These structured, comprehensive, nonresidential programs provide health, social, and related support services in a protective setting during part of a day but for less than 24 hours.
Parameters for Who Can Be Served
Adult day services programs may serve adults with impairments. Each program's plan of operation must include a definition of the target population including number, age, and needs of participants. For each participant, the program shall have an individual plan of care based on services needed and available. No provisions were identified regarding individuals who may not be served, but providers are required to have a discharge policy that includes discharge criteria.
