

Take the Good Health-Good Economy Quiz

Are the following statements True or False?

(No peeking at the answers at the bottom!)

TRUE FALSE

- | | | |
|-------|-------|---|
| _____ | _____ | 1. Work is central to social status, one of the most powerful predictors of health outcomes. |
| _____ | _____ | 2. Unemployment is associated with a large number of health risks. |
| _____ | _____ | 3. Inadequate employment is also associated with poor health outcomes |
| _____ | _____ | 4. The degree of control that employees exercise over their work influences health. |
| _____ | _____ | 5. At least one study indicates that every step up the occupational ladder has positive health consequences. |
| _____ | _____ | 6. Access to health insurance comes primarily through the workplace and has important health consequences. |
| _____ | _____ | 7. Worksite health promotion programs improve the health of those who have access to them. |
| _____ | _____ | 8. Despite its overall health benefits, work can be hazardous to health. |
| _____ | _____ | 9. Work influences the health of families and children. |
| _____ | _____ | 10. Health conditions affect work status. |
| _____ | _____ | 11. Income inequality affects health. |
| _____ | _____ | 12. An emerging social science framework integrates labor market conditions, employment experiences and health. |

All of the above statements are TRUE!

For more information, visit <EZ/EC site here > or The California Wellness Foundation at http://www.tcdf.org/reflections/2000/jun/pages/themes/theme_overview.htm.