

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation

2002 Call for Applications
National and Area Poverty Research Centers

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services is seeking applications for a National Poverty Research Center and Area Poverty Research Centers. The National Center will provide leadership through innovative basic and applied research, long-term policy analysis and evaluation, and mentoring to increase the number and diversity of poverty scholars. The Area Poverty Research Centers will create an environment conducive to interdisciplinary collaborations among social and behavioral scientists and affected communities with the goal of improving the well-being of individuals, families and children.

Universities or other post-secondary degree granting entities are eligible to apply. The announcement is available on the ASPE website at <http://aspe.hhs.gov/funding.htm>.
