SUMMIT ANNOUNCEMENT

The first ever U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias Summit will be held on Thursday, October 22, 2026, from 1:00 to 4:00pm ET at Broward Health Medical Center, 1600 S. Andrews Ave., Fort Lauderdale, FL 33316. The meeting will also be webcast live on http://www.hhs.gov/live.

During the Summit, distinguished guests will offer opening remarks, and leaders from across HHS will discuss efforts to advance research and innovation, improve health care, and support patients and families.

If you can attend in person, please complete the registration form by Monday, October 19: https://forms.cloud.microsoft/g/LwGKnXqkcB

Please share this meeting announcement with others in your network who may be interested in attending.

In-person seating for members of the public is limited and will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Submitting the registration form does not reserve or guarantee a seat.

The names of expected in-person attendees will be provided to security. Any interested member of the public who is a non-U.S. citizen should include this information on the registration form to ensure that the appropriate security procedure to gain entry to the building is carried out. Although the meeting is open to the public, procedures governing security and entrance may change without notice. Please note that individuals entering the event must present a REAL ID compliant credential or another federally approved form of identification. Below is the list of acceptable forms of ID.
