

Physician-Focused Payment Model Technical Advisory Committee

PTAC Member Disclosures on the Patient-Centered Oncology Payment Model (PCOP)

Members of the Physician-Focused Payment Model Technical Advisory Committee (PTAC) make disclosures on proposals in accordance with the Committee's bylaws (revised October 4, 2019). Disclosures assist members with recusal determinations. Having a disclosure does not necessarily mean that a member has a conflict of interest or inability to remain impartial. The following disclosures relate to the Patient-Centered Oncology Payment Model (PCOP) proposal submitted by the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO).

PTAC Member Disclosures*
Committee member	Disclosed Information
Jeffrey Bailet	Nothing to disclose.
Paul N. Casale	Nothing to disclose.
Jay S. Feldstein	Nothing to disclose.
Lauran Hardin	Nothing to disclose.
Joshua Liao	Nothing to disclose.
Kavita Patel	Because of my involvement in ASCO, I recuse myself from the review, deliberation, and voting of this proposal.
Angelo Sinopoli	Nothing to disclose.
Bruce Steinwald	Nothing to disclose.
Grace Terrell	Nothing to disclose.
Jennifer Wiler	Nothing to disclose.

* Former PTAC Committee member Charles DeShazer, who served on the Preliminary Review Team (PRT) for the Patient-Centered Oncology Payment Model (PCOP) proposal submitted by the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO), also had "Nothing to disclose."

Updated 9/8/2020