

Physician-Focused Payment Model Technical Advisory Committee

According to the Physician-Focused Payment Model Technical Advisory Committee (PTAC) bylaws voted on and approved by PTAC on August 4, 2017:

“Disclosures to the Committee. Prior to participating in any review, deliberation voting, or other Committee work related to a PFPM submitted to the Committee, Committee members shall disclose to the Committee in writing:

- a. any role they have played in the development of the submitted PFPM;
- b. any prior personal or professional relationship with the person or organization submitting the PFPM; and
- c. any impact that such a PFPM could have on them if it were approved.”

PTAC members’ disclosures relating to potential conflicts of interest and potential threats to impartiality related to the identified proposal are presented below:

Submission from the American Academy of Family Physicians for a Physician-Focused Payment Model entitled, “Advanced Primary Care: A Foundational Alternative Payment Model (APC-APM) for Delivering Patient-Centered, Longitudinal, and Coordinated Care”.

PTAC Member Disclosures
Committee member	Disclosed Information
Jeffrey Bailet	Nothing to disclose.
Robert Berenson	As a Fellow at the Urban Institute I have been funded by the AAFP to do analysis of payment models. The last such project was about 4 years ago. I recently was part of a failed bid in response to an AAFP RFP on single payer programs. I had no involvement with development of this AAFP payment proposal.
Paul Casale	Nothing to disclose.
Tim Ferris	Nothing to disclose.
Rhonda Medows	I have not had any involvement in this proposed PFPM. This PFPM would have no special or distinct effect on me other than as part of a class. I am family medicine physician and have been a member of the American Academy of Family Physicians for years as it is the professional association representing my specialty. I am not currently practicing medicine.
Harold D. Miller	I have not had any involvement in this proposal and the PFPM would have no special effect on me. I gave a presentation to the AAFP Board in 2009 and I gave a presentation at the AAFP Annual Leadership

	Forum in 2012. I received travel reimbursements from AAFP for those two trips to Kansas City and I received a speaking fee for the presentation in 2012. I have no current or recent financial relationship with AAFP. Harold Miller
Elizabeth Mitchell	Nothing to disclose.
Len M. Nichols	Nothing to disclose.
Kavita Patel	I have worked informally with the AAFP in the past and attended sessions that they have sponsored including sessions on payment reform but I have not participated in the development of this proposal in any way. I also have had working relationships with some of the DC AAFP staff including working with several individuals prior to their roles in the AAFP.
Bruce Steinwald	Nothing to disclose.
Grace Terrell	Nothing to disclose.