

Physician-Focused Payment Model Technical Advisory Committee

According to the Physician-Focused Payment Model Technical Advisory Committee (PTAC) bylaws voted on and approved by PTAC on June 21, 2016:

“PFPM-specific disclosures. Prior to reviewing, participating in deliberations, and/or voting on a PFPM submitted to the Committee, Committee members shall disclose any role they have played in the development of the submitted PFPM and any impact that such a PFPM could have on them if it were approved.”

PTAC members’ disclosures relating to potential conflicts of interest and potential threats to impartiality related to the identified proposal are presented below:

Submission from the American College of Surgeons for a Physician-Focused Payment Model entitled, the “ACS-Brandeis Advanced APM”

PTAC Member Disclosures
Committee member	Disclosed Information
Jeffrey Bailet	Nothing to Disclose
Robert Berenson	“I have frequently engaged with Frank Opelka at meetings related to physician payment. He has heard me speak and I have heard him speak, once on the ACS model earlier this year. I have never discussed this payment model with him.” Robert Berenson
Paul Casale	Nothing to Disclose
Tim Ferris	“The developers presented their work to me several times in the past 5 yrs. I provided informal advice. I also participated in a grant application to validate the metrics. Prior professional relationship with Chris Tomkins at Brandeis. Prior professional relationship with Frank Opelka at ACS – we served on the consensus steering committee at the National Quality Forum. I recuse myself from voting on this proposal.” Tim Ferris
Rhonda Medows	Nothing to Disclose
Harold D. Miller	No, I have not had any involvement in this PFPM. No, this PFPM would have no impact on me. “I know Frank Opelka from the American College of Surgeons

	professionally. We served together for a period of time on the National Quality Forum Board of Directors and we have on several occasions been together at meetings or conferences giving separate presentations to the same audience. I also know Chris Tompkins from Brandeis University professionally, and we have had many discussions over the past decade about payment reform issues. I have no financial relationship with either the American College of Surgeons nor Brandeis University, and I have had no involvement in the preparation of this PFPM nor would I benefit in any way, financially or otherwise, based on whether the PFPM was recommended by the PTAC.” Harold Miller.
Elizabeth Mitchell	“The developers presented their work to me several times in the past 3 yrs and we discussed the possibility of integrating regional claims data. Prior professional relationship with Frank Opelka, MD at ACS – we served on the Measures Application Partnership at the National Quality Forum.” Elizabeth Mitchell
Len M. Nichols	Nothing to Disclose
Kavita Patel	“I have heard ACS present portions of this model in various conference and clinical settings and have had informal conversations over the years with ACS about alternative payment model.” Kavita Patel
Bruce Steinwald	Nothing to Disclose
Grace Terrell	“I have heard Dr. Frank Opelka speak twice on the general topic of bundled payments and have had a conversation with him about bundled payments in an airport lounge while we were both waiting on a plane several months ago.” Grace Terrell